CULTURE

अंधविश्वास और अन्य बकवास

A photo essay from the 52nd New Delhi World Book Fair and its unlikely neighbour, Nakshatra — the trade fair for astrology, tarot, and all things con — held side by side at Pragati Maidan. On the strange coexistence of faith and reason, superstition and literature, in one of the capital's great annual public spaces.

ichotomies at the New Delhi World Book Fair cum Nakshatra 2024

As the 52nd year of the New Delhi World Book Fair comes to an end, its sister fair, Nakshatra also completes 16. A trade fair organized by the ITPO, Nakshatra is another Pragati Maidan grand event for Indian culture, businesses, & especially businesses built off of that culture: astrology, tarot, & all things con. This year, for the second time in a row, Nakshatra took place alongside the world book fair, its antithesis in mind & soul. The book fair stands for everything Nakshatra is an insult to, & yet there were aspects of faith, seeing & unseeing, to be found in both.
